VOICEMAIL DISCLOSURES

The Registered Representative must mention Kovack Securities, and may not use the abbreviation "KSI" in its place. In addition, the message must indicate that no orders are to be left on their voicemail system as they will not be executed. For example, the following voicemail may be used:

"You have reached the office of John Astor, Financial Advisor with Black Marlin Financial Services, Inc., with securities offered through Kovack Securities. I'm not available at this time, but will return your call at my earliest opportunity. Please do not leave any securities orders on your voicemail, as they will not be executed."

This voicemail message should be placed on all telephone lines used to communicate with clients: for example, your office line and your cell phone, if clients call you on your cell.
